History of the Early Organization

In 1865 the Congregational Society was organized and at that time began its efforts to organize a church.

The first Congregational Church in Columbus was located at 960-22nd Ave. The building was dedicated Feb. 3, 1867, and was used for worship until the fall of 1879 when the second building was completed. The location of the second church was at 2506--13th St. Around 1890 many new business houses opened on 13th St. and at that time a third site was chosen for the church at the southeast corner of the intersection of 26th Ave. and 14th St. This last site served until the time when it federated with the Presbyterian Church.

In October 1866 the organization was perfected and completed by the Rev. Ruben Gaylord of Omaha and on Feb, 3, 1867, the church building, later used for a high school was dedicated.

The lumber that went into the construction of the first church building was the first consignment of freight and transported by the Union Pacific Rail Road from Omaha to Columbus and because it was to be used for the erection of a Church the rail road donated the freight charges.

In 1865 the Congregational Society was organized, and at that time began its efforts to organize a church. Its early members were W. C/. Sutton, Loretta Sutton, Mrs. J. B. Wells, (Rosina C. Bauer Baker), Samuel C. and Clara A. Smith, Theda M. Coolidge (Mrs. H. P. Coolidge), Mary A. Elliott, C. A. Spiece, Michael Weaver, George W. Stevens, Vincent Kummer, Doctor C. B. Stillman, I. N. Taylor, and Julius A. Reed. Others mentioned in the Incorporation Records of the Society were Joseph A. Baker, Johanna Bauer, H. M. Barnes, Sara E. Taylor, and Eliza G. Platt. In 1922 only one of the charter members, Mrs. H. P. Coolidge, was living when the Federated Church was dedicated. She died that year.

"Five of the 1922 membership were identified with the first church located on Twenty-Second Avenue near Ninth Street--- Mrs. Theda Coolidge, Mr and Mrs, C. G. Hickock, Mrs. Anna McCray, and Mrs. Emma Whitmoyer."

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

COLUMBUS, NEBRASKA

EARLY HISTORY

The organization of the Presbyterian Congregation was effected January 30, 1870, as the result of a series of meetings which began in 1869.

The Presbytery of Missouri River in session at Sioux City, Iowa, April 29, 1869, appointed Reverend Sheldon Jackson Superintendent of Missions for Nebraska and in neighboring states.

In the summer of that year monthly meetings were started in Columbus and later semi-monthly services were held at the residence of George W. Brown and Mrs. A. J. Arnold by Reverend J. M. Hutchinson and Reverend Sheldon Jackson.

At the January 30, 1870, meeting George W. Brown was installed as elder.

Others who served in that position were Marshall Smith and E. A. Gerrard. Trustees elected included George W. Brown, Leander Gerrard and Peter Becker.

The original members were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Brown, Mrs. A. J. Arnold (Amanda Polly), Mrs. Josephine Compton, Mrs. Joseph Gerrard, Miss Avis and Miss Emma Gerrard.

The church building now the American Legion Hall, was erected in 1878 by Marshall Smith. The contract was let for eighteen hundred and fifty dollars. In September, 1884, the building was remodeled at the cost of fourteen

THE HISTORY OF THE ## REIGN OF KING CHARLES THE FIRST

BY SAMUEL JOHNSON

The reign of King Charles the First, who reigned from the year 1625 to 1649, was a period of great political and religious turbulence in England. The king's policies, particularly his support for the Anglican Church and his attempts to impose uniformity, led to widespread discontent among the Puritan population. This discontent culminated in the English Civil War, a conflict that ultimately resulted in the execution of the king and the establishment of a republic.

The king's personal life was also marked by controversy. His marriage to Henrietta Maria of France, a Catholic, was seen as a betrayal of the Protestant faith. His relationship with his subjects was often strained, and his decisions were frequently challenged. The war itself was a series of complex battles, with the king's forces facing significant setbacks. The final outcome was the execution of Charles the First on January 30, 1649, a event that marked a turning point in English history.

The reign of Charles the First is remembered for its dramatic events and the profound impact it had on the nation. It was a time of great struggle and sacrifice, and it shaped the course of the country's future. The legacy of the king and the events of his reign continue to be studied and debated by historians and scholars.

hundred dollars. At that time the church was enlarged and a bell tower built. Dedicatory services took place soon after the church was completed.

The Presbyterian Society of Columbus filed articles of incorporation at the Platte County Court House on June 22, 1874. Herein is a copy of the record as filed:

"At a meeting of the Presbyterian Church and congregation held May 17, 1874, the church was incorporated. The Reverend A. S. Foster was elected President and Marshall Smith was elected vice president, E. J. Baker was elected clerk, Doctor S. A. Pinkney, M. Whitmoyer, E. J. Baker, John M. Kelley and Abner Turner were elected as Trustees.

The articles of incorporation were issued on July 27, 1874. The papers were signed by: William Lewis, David A. Joseph, Robert Lewis, Clark Cooncey, and Robert Jones."

On February 13, 1896, the following record was filed at the Platte County Court House:

Columbus, Nebraska

January 19, 1896.

"This is to certify that the following named persons were duly elected Trustees by the members of the Presbyterian Church of Columbus, Nebraska, on the above named place and date: W. A. McAllister, A. M. Covert, C. J. Garlow, William Lockhart, W. H. VanAlstine, Moderator: N. G. Lacey, Clerk: H. B. Reed."
